KEY

Six categories are divided into locals with fewer than 500 members and those with more than 500 members for more equity in judging

Green = fewer than 500 members

Blue = more than 500 members

Best Newsletter (Single-Page)

FEWER THAN 500 MEMBERS

FIRST

Lawndale Federation of Classified Employees

The Classified Beacon

Edited by Carl Williams, President

Judges' comments: Terrific newsletter name and tagline. The recognizable design connects well with its content. Colorful and easy to read.

SECOND

Citrus College Adjunct Faculty Federation

Local Update

By Mark Wessel, Secretary and Communications Director

THIRD

Novato Federation of Teachers

The Novato Teacher

By Aaron Fix, President; Beverly Winsor, Staff Rep

Best Newsletter (Single-Page)

MORE THAN 500 MEMBERS

FIRST (TIE)

AFT College Staff Guild - Los Angeles

Hot Off the Press

By Velma J. Butler, President; Dorothy Bates, First Vice President; Mary VanGinkle, Secretary; Sandra Lepore, Executive Secretary

Ventura County Federation of College Teachers

AFT Action Update

By Steve Hall, President; Renee Fraser, Part-Time Vice President-Moorpark College; Alan Hayashi, Budget Analyst; Marty Hittelman, Communications Specialist; Rudy Corral, Labor Organizer; Catrina Schambra, Administrative Assistant for Research

Judges' comments: Consistent formats alert the reader as to what they will find in these newsletters. Under a nice banner, Ventura packs a lot of information into a single page. The Staff Guild offers quick bits of information that are also available on the union's new mobile app.

Best Newsletter (Four-Page)

FEWER THAN 500 MEMBERS

FIRST

Morgan Hill Federation of Teachers

The Morgan Hill Teacher

Edited by Jeanie Wallace, Editor

Judges' comments: A lot of substance and to the point. "Teachers at the Mic" column skillfully highlights the teachers who speak at the board of education. For members who teach more than 150 students a day, this is a good summary of current issues and a quick read.

Yuba College Federation of Teachers

Going Adjunct

By Jodi Azulai, Editor

Best Newsletter (Four-Page)

MORE THAN 500 MEMBERS

FIRST

Los Angeles College Faculty Guild

Read On

By Deborah Kaye, Editor; Cherri Senders, Managing Editor

Judges' comments: Good mix of new articles, action, and information you can use. Good use of faculty voices and summary of executive board motions. Effective design makes the newsletter easy and quick to read.

State Center Federation of Teachers

The Federalist

By Lacy Barnes, President/Editor; Vanessa Spady, Layout and Design

THIRD

AFT College Staff Guild - Los Angeles

In Strength and Unity

By Velma J. Butler, President; Dorothy Bates, First Vice President; Sandra Lepore, Executive Secretary; Steve Weingarten, Communications Consultant

Best Newsletter (Six-or-more-page)

Judges comments: This was an extremely strong category overall — with excellent entries from locals who had not entered in a long time or ever before.

San Francisco Community College Federation of Teachers

Union Action

By Li Miao Lovett and John Walsh, Co-Editors; Gwynnd Maestre, Graphic Designer; AFT 2121 Officers and Staff

Judges' comments: Good balance of practical news internal and external with an orientation toward, as the name says, "action." The use of photos and graphics really emphasize member involvement. "This newsletter lives up to its name."

United Educators of San Francisco

San Francisco Educator

By Matthew Hardy, Editor

THIRD

Peralta Federation of Teachers

Peralta Teacher

By Debby Weintraub, Communications Director; Matthew M. Goldstein, President; Dan Ziegler, Graphic Designer

HONORABLE MENTION

United Teachers Los Angeles

United Teacher

By Kim Turner, Communications Specialist

Best Email Newsletter

FIRST

Peralta Federation of Teachers

PFT e-Communiqué and PCCD Board Watch

By Debby Weintraub, Communications Director; Matthew M. Goldstein, President

Judges' comments: Creative effective approach: One email goes out the morning of the board meeting, and another follows up with a synopsis of the meeting. Wonderful tone hits the right balance between humor and seriousness of the content. Effective use of quotations and colorful language help present substantial detailed information.

United Educators of San Francisco

United Educators of San Francisco eNews

By Matthew Hardy, Communications Director

THIRD

San Mateo College Federation of Teachers

AFT 1493: The Advocate

By Eric Brenner, Editor

Best Single Effort

Menifee Council of Classified Employees

New Dues Structure

By Shelly Reed, Treasurer

Judges' comments: This presentation spoke directly to concerns that members had about a critical issue — money. Dues are something that people are reluctant to talk about, yet the local put it right out there in a way that it brought them success in these difficult times. It shows the local demonstrating the fiscal accountability it demands from management.

UC-AFT Santa Cruz

Teach the Budget video

By Allison Guevara, Field Representative; Courtney Hanson, Local 2199 intern and UCSC Student

THIRD

Culver City Federation of Teachers

Letter to the Editor: Los Angeles Times

By David Mielke, President

Best Single Effort

FIRST

San Jose/Evergreen Faculty Association

Student Success Beyond the Classroom campaign

By Frank Espinoza, Vice President

Judges' comments: This story effectively describes how the local honored students and tied student success to transfer information and meaningful employment — all in conjunction with the South Bay Labor Council and the greater community for full integration.

United Teachers Los Angeles

Williams Uniform Complaint filing

By Carolina Barreiro and Kim Turner, Communications Specialists

THIRD (TIE)

Cabrillo College Federation of Teachers

Cabrillo With or Without Prop. 30

By Maya Bendetoff, Executive Director

San Mateo Community College Federation of Teachers

Newsletter articles about district attorney investigation

By Bob Bezemek and David Conway, Attorneys; Dan Kaplan, Executive Secretary

HONORABLE MENTION

San Francisco Community College Federation of Teachers

Prop. A campaign “Thank You” card

By Gwynnd Maestre, Graphic Designer

Judges' comments: We normally don't say anything about honorable mention, but about this election campaign thank you card, we want to say just how important it is to thank political volunteers after an election.

Best Flyer or Poster

FIRST (TIE)

Los Rios College Federation of Teachers

LRCFT urges you to vote Yes on 30

By Robyn Waxman, Professor of Graphics
Communication

San Francisco Community College Federation of Teachers

All Out for City College of San Francisco

By Gwynnd Maestre, Graphic Designer; Alisa Messer,
President

Judges' comments: We've seen a million flyers for union meetings and San Francisco's use of a dynamic angle makes this flyer effective yet simple at the same time. One judge said, "Plus, it leans in the right direction." Los Rios graphically illustrates the stark contrast of what's at stake for members through good use of color, and reminds members to vote in the election.

United Educators of San Francisco

UESF Pledge Card: Enough is Enough!

By Matthew Hardy, Communications Director

THIRD

Los Angeles College Faculty Guild

2012 Adjunct Informational Series

By Tina Epherson, Communications

HONORABLE MENTION

Coast Federation of Educators

Happy Holidays from CCCD?

By Dean Mancina, President

Best Bulletin Series

Coast Federation of Classified Employees

Table Talk

By Connie Marten, Vice President-Golden West
College; Ann Nicholson, President

Judges' comments: Nice use of checkmarks to show the articles being bargained as negotiations progressed. Great job of keeping members informed. The reports made you feel like you were at the table.

Coast Federation of Educators

Enough is Enough!

By Dean Mancina, President; Chris Hamilton, Vice
President-Golden West College; Rob Scheidermann,
Vice President-Orange Coast College

United Educators of San Francisco

Table Talk

By Matthew Hardy, Communications Director

HONORABLE MENTION

Oxnard Federation of Teachers and School Employees

Negotiations Updates

By Negotiating Team Members Wes Davis, President;
Josh Chancer, Secretary; Angel Calvo, Executive Director

Best Public Relations

FIRST

Allan Hancock Part-Time Faculty Association

Public Awareness campaign

By Mark James Miller, President

Judges' comments: Regular op-eds in the local newspaper are a great way to connect with the community, especially in a conservative region where public relations is particularly challenging. One judge said, "Conducting union education in the pages of the general media is no mean feat."

Novato Federation of Teachers

NUSD Does Not Need Another Charter

By Aaron Fix, President; Fran Rozoff, Vice President

Culver City Federation of Teachers

Letter to Los Angeles Times in response to editorial "ABC's of Firing a Teacher"

By David Mielke, President

Best Public Relations

FIRST

San Francisco Community College Federation of Teachers

Yes on Prop. A Campaign

By Alisa Messer, President; Galina Gerasimova, Political Director; Kathe Burick, Yes on Prop. A Organizer; AFT Local 2121 members, officers, staff

Judges' comments: The local created a distinct logo in multiple languages to target different audiences and used it consistently. A true multimedia approach — integrating good graphics and photography into collateral buttons, posters, flyers and social media.

United Teachers Los Angeles

Stop the Insanity campaign

By Carolina Barreiro and Kim Turner, Communications Specialists

Best Use of Social Media

FIRST

UC-AFT Santa Cruz

Teach the Budget video on YouTube

By Allison Guevara, Field Representative; Courtney Hanson, Local 2199 intern and UCSC student

Judges' comments: A thoughtful presentation that enlisted member's students to help tell the story. This video brought to life the number of departments and majors that have been cut. The scene with 38-year teacher Mike Rotkin and the empty shelves effectively showed that cuts have consequences.

FIRST

San Francisco Community College Federation of Teachers

Iamcitycollege.tumblr.com

By Alisa Messer, President

Judges' comments: This usage of tumblr is "as close to face-to-face as you can get." Terrific framing of photos and use of hand-lettered signs in different languages show the diversity of students served by City College. One judge said, "The tumblr is more than half full."

United Educators of San Francisco

Facebook page: uesf61

By Matthew Hardy, Communications Director

THIRD

AFT College Staff Guild - Los Angeles

Staff Guild mobile app

By Velma J. Butler, President; Armand Santos

Judges' comments: Usually we don't make comments about a third place winner, but this mobile app is a trendsetter and may prove to be an innovative use of technology for unions.

Oxnard Federation of Teachers and School Employees

Facebook page: Our OFTSE

By Linda Torres, Paraeducator Vice President

Best News Writing

United Teachers Los Angeles

“Ravitch delivers message of support for public school educators”

By Kim Turner, Communications Specialist

Judges’ comments: Appropriate coverage given to a towering figure in education — Diane Ravitch. Excellent lead paragraph makes you want to read the story. Good solid reporting and writing gives members substantive info from the speech. The sidebar “Quotable Ravitch” is a bonus and a good second point of entry.

Los Angeles College Faculty Guild

“Guild Protests Two-Tiered Proposal at SMC”

By Deborah Kaye, Editor; Cherri Sanders, Managing Editor

United Educators of San Francisco

“Does the SFUSD Really Need Another $30 Million?”

By Matthew Hardy, Communications Director

San Francisco Community College Federation of Teachers

“Governor Brown’s plan to privatize public employee pensions”

By Douglas Orr, City College Economics Department and AFT Local 2121 member

Best Feature Writing

FIRST

San Jose/Evergreen Faculty Association

“Occupy Movement – The Unsung Hero”

By David Yancey, President

Judges’ comments: A well-written philosophical piece about a critical movement that played a key role in the General Election — both in national issues and local issues such as Proposition 30.

United Educators of San Francisco

“Enough is Enough! No Cuts, No Layoffs!”

By Matthew Hardy, Communications Director

THIRD

Ventura County Federation of College Teachers

“What’s the Relationship Between AFT and the Academic Senate?”

By Jenny Redding, First Vice President-Oxnard College

United Teachers Los Angeles

“Teacher Fights Retaliation — and Wins”

By Kim Turner, Communications Specialist

Best Editorial or Column

FIRST

San Francisco Community College Federation of Teachers

“High stakes for all of us”

By Alisa Messer, President

Judges’ comments: We all hear about the importance of every election cycle, but this editorial really captured the importance because so much was at stake in the local election. The editorial pointed us in the right direction without glossing over the problems that needed to be addressed. Good use of subheads to navigate the shoals of dangers.

SECOND (TIE)

Culver City Federation of Teachers

“I don’t think we need Ms. Rodor’s kind of spirit”

By David Mielke, President

Los Angeles College Faculty Guild

“We Won’t Back Down”

By Joanne Waddell, President

THIRD (TIE)

Citrus College Adjunct Faculty Federation

“Pursuing the Full-Time Job (Processing the Process)”

By Mark Wessel, Secretary and Communications Director

United Educators of San Francisco

“Solution-Driven Unionism is the Way Forward”

By Susan Solomon, Executive Vice President

Best Original Art or Photograph

Citrus College Adjunct Faculty Federation

“Citrus College Morgue”

By Mark Wessel, Secretary and Communications Director

Judges’ comments: The artist’s touching reinterpretation of a classic painting perfectly symbolizes the point he is trying to make — the grief of layoffs and unemployment. The image taps into pop culture television shows so we all relate to it. One judge said, “It’s a dead ringer for first prize.”

United Educators of San Francisco

“Determined Member Organizers Take a Stand”

By Matthew Hardy, Communications Director

THIRD

San Francisco Community College Federation of Teachers

“So much at stake in November’s election”

By Chris Hanzo, Executive Director

United Teachers Los Angeles

“LAUSD: You Can’t Afford to Lose Me!”

By Kim Turner, Communications Specialist

Best Use of Graphics

San Francisco Community College Federation of Teachers

“District revenues rebounding: What about worker livelihoods and student access?”

By Chris Hanzo, Executive Director; Gwynnd Maestre, Graphic Designer; AFT Local 2121 members and staff

Judges’ comments: This compelling infographic is easy to grasp without a lot of interpretation. The chart is really big and easy to read, and thorough in its timeline so it shows the trend over time. The abstract nature of the numbers are balanced by the humanity surrounding it.

San Mateo Community College Federation of Teachers

“Under Their Thumb”

By Eric Brenner, Editor

THIRD

United Teachers Los Angeles

“Back-to-school ‘prop’ quiz”

By Kim Turner, Communications Specialist

HONORABLE MENTION

Peralta Federation of Teachers

“How to Read a Paycheck”

By Patricia Dudley, Grievance Officer and Secretary; Dan Ziegler, Graphic Designer

Best Website

FIRST

Allan Hancock Part-Time Faculty Association

www.pfaofahc.com

By Dorran Nadeau, Editor-In-Chief

Judges’ comments: Nice blog-style site that has a clean uncrowded look, offers good information sources, and uses some excellent photos. Home page is nicely organized with user-friendly navigation. The blog is current and well-integrated into the overall site.

Best Website

United Educators of San Francisco

Jim Herndon Award

San Jose/Evergreen Faculty Association

“CFT Convention 2012: General Session II”

By Sterling Warner, English Faculty

Judges’ comments: This outstanding effort — a poem about the CFT Convention — captures the spirit of our Convention and creatively expresses the solidarity and feelings that arise at a convention. It’s not a typical genre for responding to a convention and “anyone who’s been to the CFT Convention with their eyes open realizes what this poem is about.”
